

A Night with the King: Musical Tribute to Elvis Presley

Fueled by a passion for old time Rock 'N Roll and influenced by a father in the ETA business, Jonathan began taking the stage as a young Elvis Presley around age 18. However, the tribute business began back at the young age of 14 where he began appearing as Johnny Cash alongside his father as Elvis Presley. The Johnny Cash tribute bore its fruits for Jonathan including the securing of the lead role in an established tribute band known as June's Got the Cash, but the burning desire to shake and swivel like "the king" called for an expansion of his repertoire. Today, Jonathan fronts his own rock and roll band Jonny Lyons & the Pride, and is a multiple award-winning tribute artist who is sure to bring you back in time!
